

Your Right to Language Assistance

- You have a right to get language help for your medical visits.
- Molina offers language help free of charge, 24 hours a day, 7 days a week.
- Providers are not allowed to ask you to bring someone to interpret. They cannot refuse to see you because of your language needs.
- If you feel these rights were not respected, you can file a complaint. To file a complaint, call Molina at the numbers below.

Getting an Interpreter

- Molina offers interpreters at no cost. You can get someone to interpret over the phone. Please call Molina at the numbers above. They can connect you right away.
- Molina can send an interpreter to your doctor's visit in some cases. This includes:
 - If you are deaf or hard of hearing.
 - If you have a medical reason an over-the-phone interpreter will not work for you.
- To ask for an interpreter in person, please call Molina at least 5 working days before your visit.

Translation and Other Formats

- Molina can translate health plan materials into your language.
- Molina also offers these materials in large print, braille and in audio format.
- Please call Molina to ask for translation and other formats.
