

Your Medicaid review letter is coming. Don't miss it!

What to expect:

It's important that everyone check their Medicaid enrollment – or risk losing it.

Do you or a family member currently have health insurance through Utah Medicaid? If so, here's what you need to know.

Be on the lookout for a review letter in the mail from the Department of Workforce Services (DWS). To ensure you receive this critical piece of mail: Make sure your address, email and phone number are up to date by calling (866) 608-9422.

This review letter will tell you one of three things:

- Utah is renewing your Medicaid coverage, or
- Utah is ending your Medicaid coverage, or
- DWS needs more information to determine if you or your family member still qualify for Medicaid. If so, a review form will be included.

If you receive a letter stating DWS needs more information to determine eligibility, follow one of these steps:

Online: Visit jobs.utah.gov/mycase/. Click the “log into MyCase” tab.

By Mail: Complete the form that DWS sent you and mail back to their office. You can find their address on the front page of the form.

In Person: Visit jobs.utah.gov/mycase/. Type in your local zip code to find the DWS office closest to you. Bring the documents you need to report your income and fill out a form in person.

By Phone: Call toll-free (866) 435-7414. You can also call this number to update your address.
